REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS TAKEN UP.

J. C. Winter read the following report on Pastor's Support:

If the Bible teaches anything, beyond a doubt it does teach the imperative duty of the churches to support their pastors. If the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is acknowledged to be the greatest and most important calling of man, surely the preacher of the Gospel should have a support. "For even so hath the Lord ordained that they who preach the Gospel shall live of the Gospel." If our pastors have sown unto us (the churches) spiritual things, is it a great thing if they shall reap our carnal things? The duty of the pastor to preach the Gospel is made very plain and imperative in the Bible.

"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." "Preach the word; give thyself wholly to the work; woe is me if I preach not the Gospel. How can they go except they be sent?" How can they preach the word except they receive a support from their churches, and how can they give themselves wholly to the work except they be sustained by the churches to whom they preach the glorious Gospel of Christ. Necessity is laid upon the pastor. The "woe is me if I preach not the Gospel" forces him to lay himself upon the bosom of his churches for his support.

Beloved brethren, great demands are made upon the resources of the faithful pastor. He is expected to, and must give to the spread of the Gospel. Must help the poor, visit and help the sick, comfort the sorrowing, and be ready to every good word and work. How can he do these things unless he is supported by his churches?

Now, dear brethren of the Zion Association, fix the salary of your pastors. See that the same is promptly paid, in order that he may faithfully preach the Gospel and be able to sustain his ministerial character, and be relieved from want and hurtful anxiety, and our Heavenly Father will bless and prosper both church and pastor.

Respectfully submitted,

D. M. WRAY,
J. C. WINTER,
Committee.

Temperance.

No truth is better established nor more universally accepted than that intemperance is an evil.

There can be no successful denial of the fact that it injures mind and body, depraves the moral nature, and conduces to crime. It is the pronounced enemy of the home, introducing neglect, estrangement, discord, bankruptcy, and want.

It is equally the foe of society and the political state, degrading the one and brutalizing and endangering the other.

Its evil extent is shown in the formidable figures of pauperism in this and other countries, four-fifths of which are credited directly to strong drink.

It is similarly shown in the statistics of crime, a like proportion of which is attributed to drunkenness.

While these figures are startling, they convey but a slight impression of the pernicious results of intemperance.

Leaving out the annual expenditure for drink, which can only be counted by millions of dollars in this country alone, and which, in its most favorable light, is a sheer waste, if not worse.

There are deeper seated, and therefore incomputable results, which men and women only witness inside of their homes and in the social circle, and which are secretly mourned as something worse than death itself.

It degrades the citizen, debases the legislator, dishonors the statesman, and disarms the patriot.

It brings shame, not honor; terror, not safety; despair, not hope; misery, not happiness; and with the malevolence of a fiend, calmly surveys its frightful desolation, and unsatisfied with this havoc, it poisons felicity, kills peace, corrupts morals, wipes out national honor, then curses the world and laughs at its ruin.

It does that and more, it murders the soul.

It is the sum of all villainies, the father of crimes, the mother of all abominations, the devil's best friend, and God's worst enemy.

We will say in conclusion, that God created man for a nobler purpose than to debase himself and spoil his home and happiness.

Respectfully,

H. Y. PUTTMAN,
P. W. MORELAND,
Committee.

Periodicals.

We recommend first of all the constant reading of the Bible in our homes. We beg that the brethren of this Association take and read our State paper, The Baptist. We also recommend the Foreign Mission Journal, Home Field, and Our Orphanage Gem, also the periodicals of our Sunday School Board.

Respectfully,

A. B. HICKS,
T. H. WILSON,
Committee.

On motion the Association proceeded to select the place for holding the next annual meeting. Unity, New Liberty, and Spring Hill petitioned for the same. Unity Church, ten miles east of Duck Hill, was chosen as the place, and Wednesday before the 2nd Sunday in September, 1903, the time for holding the next Association.

A. B. Hicks read report on Missions. A. V. Rowe spoke to the report, and on motion it was adopted.

Report on Missions.

Christ's command is supreme. "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon Him, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." "How then shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed, and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard, and how shall they hear without a preacher, and how shall they preach except they be sent."

From these Scriptures and many others, it is our imperative duty to preach the Gospel everywhere.

We take pleasure in emphasizing the fact that the Lord is wonderfully blessing our mission work everywhere.

Dear brethren, great blessings call for increased giving. We commend that the pastors and messengers of this Association carry the subject of missions to every church of the Association, and try to get a contribution for missions from every member of every church in the Association.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. HICKS,
T. H. WILSON,
Committee.

"give and it shall be given us, good measure, pressed down, and shaken together and running over."

So, as we have said, that it is our duty to give is not a question, but as to a systematic form of beneficence that would apply to, or that could be enforced in an organized religious body, is a question, or rather a problem, we must leave for wiser heads to solve.

We would, however, suggest an individual system, which we believe, if adopted, would work great good to the Master's cause.

Let every one decide that he will give a certain amount for all purposes during the year, and let him divide the amount between the different objects, making due allowance for contingences, and then pay promptly, for it is better not to vow than to vow and not pay.

Respectfully,

F. A. MARTIN,
R. E. PERRY,
Committee.

J. R. Skelton read the report on Ministerial Education. T. H. Wilson, W. H. Thompson, A. B. Hicks, and W. T. McQuary spoke on the report.

W. T. McQuary stated that he had received a letter from Bro. M. L. Sheppard, our young minister in school at Clinton, requesting him to thank the Association for the financial aid given him, and asking to be remembered in our prayers. Rev. A. B. Hicks led in special prayer for Bro. Sheppard, and the report was adopted.

Report on Ministerial Education.

We understand the meaning of ministerial education to some extent, but we do not heed it as we should.

We feel it is our indispensable duty to educate our ministers, because all other professions are educating their leaders, and he that is to lead and guide us in divine things must be qualified not only in literary, but in theology.

If they are not able to thus qualify themselves, we should assist them.

We beg the pastors and messengers to carry this matter before their churches.

We recommend Bro. M. L. Sheppard to the churches of this Association as worthy of their support.

T. H. WILSON,
J. R. SKELTON,
Committee.

The Moderator then appointed the following committee:
On nominations:

J. R. Skelton and J. B. Black.

On digest of church letters:

A. B. Hicks and T. H. Wilson.

The Association then joined in singing, "All hail the power of Jesus' name," and was dismissed with prayer by W. H. Thompson, until 7:30 p. m.

Theme—"The Christian's bounding duty to witness for Jesus," first by example, and second by precept. After which Rev. T. J. Bailey preached from Hebrews, 12:1-2. Theme—"The strenuous Christian life." T. H. Wilson led in prayer. Dismissed by T. J. Bailey.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

At 9:00 a. m. the moderator called to order by reading Psalms 118, 1-9. "What a friend we have in Jesus" was sung, and M. C. Allen led in prayer.

NOTE.—$1.00 of the amount named was paid to me by R. J. Stoker for general missions. CLERK.

J. W. Spencer read report on Sunday Schools. Spoken on by T. H. Wilson, and adopted.

Report on Sunday Schools.

That the Sunday School is a power for good in the land, none who have enjoyed its privileges will deny.

That we have Scriptural authority for Sunday Schools our best people are agreed, and that it is productive of great good all Christian workers will testify. Yet in many of our churches there is a sad lack of interest in this grand and noble work, in training our children in the fear and service of our Master.

Brethren, there is evidently a necessity for increased interest in this work. Its importance can no longer be questioned. How to get the people interested and at work in the Sunday School is what we would like to know.

From the report sent up from the churches to the Association and other information we have gathered, we find that there is sixteen Sunday Schools in our bounds, the largest number that has ever been reported into this body. Yet this leaves nearly half our churches without Sunday Schools.

Where can a place be found better suited to meet the needs of both old and young in the study of the Scriptures than in the Sunday School?

We are glad to note the increase of interest in this part of Christian work, and hope and pray that the work shall still increase until every church in our Zion shall have an evergreen Sunday School. Statistics show that from 75 to 80 per cent. of the members coming into our churches are from the Sunday School.

We note that twenty-one of the twenty-two added to New Hope Church during the last year were members of the Sunday School. Can we afford to ignore such a power for good in bringing the unsaved to Christ for life and salvation? No! Oh, brethren! let us arise in our might, shake off our indifference, gird on the armor, and rally around the Sunday School Banner, working for our blessed Master while life lasts and opportunity is given, for we will pass this way but once.

J. W. THERRELL,
H. G. MCCAIN,
Committee.

A. B. Hicks read report on digest of church letters, which on motion was adopted.

DIGEST OF CHURCH LETTERS

We have examined seventeen letters. The spiritual condition of but one church is given, and that one is lukewarm.

We find the following statements for the year: Baptisms, 144; Sunday Schools, 14; deaths, 22 We ask that the memorial page be continued in our minutes.

A. B. HICKS,
T. H. WILSON,
Committee.

Report on Woman's Work, read by A. B. Hicks, spoken on by A. B. Hicks, T. J. Bailey, T. H. Wilson, and on motion the report was adopted.

Report on Woman's Work.

Christian womanhood is a benediction to our homes, to our churches, to our Sabbath Schools, and to our nation. She was the friend, helper and companion of the world's Redeemer. In Luke 8:2, 3, we find them united together, forming the first Woman's Christian Aid Society to "minister unto the Lord Jesus of their substance." In Phil. 4:3, we find the Apostle Paul entreating his true yoke fellow, "To help those women who labored with him in the Gospel." In Romans 16:1, 2, we find the same Apostle commending Phebe, a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea, saying: "She hath been a succorer of many and of myself also."

In the South we have the Woman's Mission Society Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, which is raising thousands of dollars annually to preach the Gospel in the destitute portion of our own Southland and throughout the world.

There is an active Woman's Aid and Mission Society in this (Europa) church, which has raised the following amounts in the last two years:

For Ministerial Education.....	$10.00
Repairs on Parsonage (1901).....	53.00
To send Pastor to S. B. Convention.....	20.00
Repairs on Parsonage (1902).....	23.00
For Missions (1902).....	6.83
For Missions (1901).....	10.95
Church Repairs (1901).....	4.70

We recommend that the Christian sisterhood of all the churches of this Association form Aid Societies to help in this great, glorious, and glowing work of preaching the Gospel of the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

A. B. HICKS,
W. T. MCQUARY,
T. H. WILSON,
Committee.

P. S.—The Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the S. B. Convention, was organized fourteen years ago. Since that time it has raised for our denominational work $704,501.00. During the last conventional year, it raised in cash, $54,716.52. By boxes, $33,353.55. Total, $88,129.07. There are co-operating in this Union 2,500 societies and bands in the South. According to last data about 500 societies and bands have been organized in Southern churches last year.

M. C. Allen read report on Orphans' Home. T. J. Bailey spoke to the report, and on motion was adopted.

Report on Orphans' Home.

The property of the Orphans' Home consists of 112 acres of land, located in northwest portion of Jackson, Miss., all in a fine state of cultivation, and entirely free from debt. Its value has more than doubled since it was purchased. It is now worth about $5,000.00. The cottages are worth $3,000.00. We also have a superintendent's home, with eight rooms, worth $2,200.00, and general improvements, such as furniture, fencing, horses, cows, wagons, farming implements, and a printing outfit worth $4,300.00. We have a deep well at a cost of $2,000.00, and pumping outfit worth $1,000.00, with other conveniences worth $100.00. So, now our property is easily worth $18,000.00, besides our three-story brick building which was built at a cost of $10,000.00, which has just been completed and furnished this year. There are now sixty-four children being cared for in the Orphanage, and many more are applying for admission. One mail recently brought application for one dozen eligible children.

Receipts for past year have been $10,493.26, but in improvements and current expenses this has been more than exhausted.

We earnestly beg each church in our Association to contribute to the support of our Orphanage, for, "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord, and that which he giveth will He repay."

M. C. ALLEN, Com.

Rev. A. F. Williams then came before the association, stating that he had made a promise to the Lord to give Him the tenth of his income, and turned over to the association $3 00, which he stated was his due unto the Lord. The association appropriated this amount to the Orphanage. Bro. Williams stated that it pleased him for it to be given for that purpose.

The following resolution of thanks was then offered by T. H. Wilson:

Resolved, That the thanks of this body are due and are hereby tendered to the Christian people in the town of Eupora for the Christian kindness and generous hospitality shown us during the meeting of this Association.

There being no other business a motion prevailed to adjourn. A closing prayer was offered by T. H. Wilson, and the Moderator declared the Association adjourned, to meet with the Unity Church, on Wednesday, before the second Sunday in September, 1903.
